

To access the internet from home on your school laptop

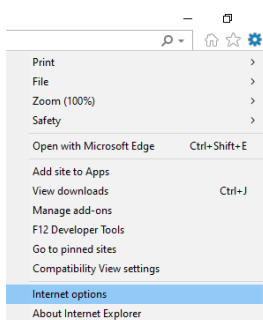

- Open internet explorer (on the toolbar at the bottom of your screen)

- Go to tools (top right)

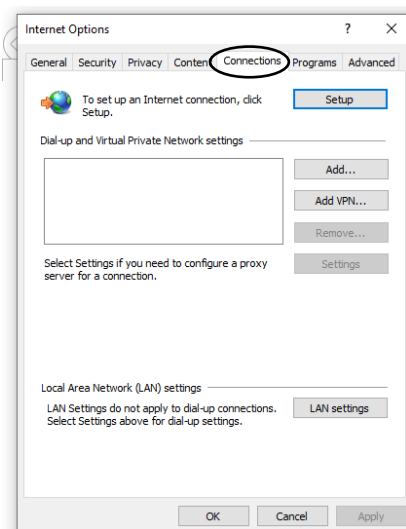

- Internet options

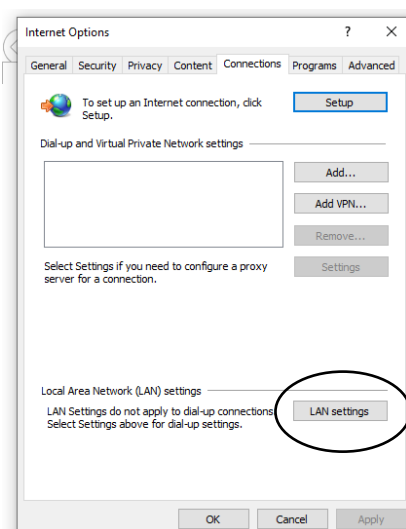

To access the internet from home on your school laptop

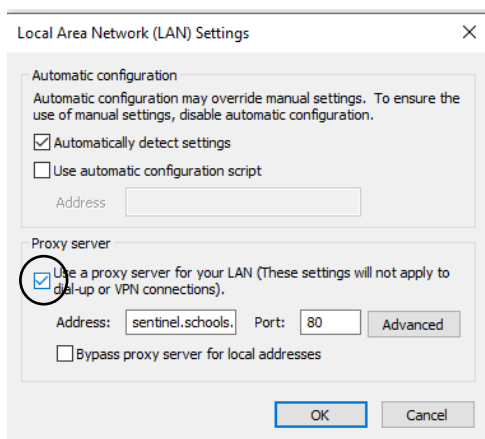

- Connections tab (along the top)

- LAN settings (bottom right)

- Untick the “use a proxy.....” box – then press OK.

- You should now be able to connect/use your own home wifi